

In-Program Mastery Assessment Documentation System Example for Secondary Reading Intervention

In-program mastery assessment data is an integral part of the Multidisciplinary Team's Assessment System in the Advanced Tiers. The examples in the link below can be used/adapted to provide a systematic way to record and analyze data for students in reading intervention programs at the secondary level, supporting data-based decision making. The link will force a copy of the documentation system for specific building use.

In-Program Mastery Assessment Documentation System Link

In-Program Mastery Assessment Documentation System Example

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1BxFktl6u0ncdYigALf6IXPMkON2PE7i0br3SdEJmHAc/copy?gid=0#gid=0>

Michigan's MTSS Technical Assistance Center is funded by the Michigan Department of Education and the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs.